May 2025 Newsletter

Hello ANS Families,

Well, here we are with our final Newsletter of the school year. We have been so busy learning new things, exploring new concepts with our STEM curriculum, as well playing with all our friends. Our school year has been an unbelievable success again this year and we are so grateful for all the amazing families that we have here at ANS. Please keep an eye out for all the important dates to remember section on this newsletter as we have a jam-packed month coming up.

Please make sure to sunblock your child before school every day, as we will be going outside daily, and the weather is getting hotter.
